

Tuesday, May 26, 2009:

- ★ Afternoon: Early Registration
- ★ Conference Overview for new CAA board members and staff.

Wednesday, May 27, 2009:

- ★ Morning: Professional Networking Opportunities – Join your CAA colleagues to share information, consider challenges and opportunities, and discuss issues related to specific programs. See details in your conference program.
- ★ Annual CSBG Planning Session (to be held in conjunction with the ROMA Committee meeting)
- ★ Afternoon: The General Session will include greetings from the always energetic mayor of Fort Smith, the Honorable Ray Baker; Community Action Memorial Service; Client and Supporter Action Awards; and the 2nd Annual CAPPY Awards ceremony, presented by magazine editor & former TV anchor, Lydia Joseph-George, honoring the outstanding CAA staff and programs who have proven that “Together, we can!”

Later, join us for...

Wednesday
Night
Fever!

Put on your disco duds for a fun evening of 70s music, dancing, contests, and karaoke!

A buffet dinner will be served and a cash bar will be available.

Thursday, May 28, 2009:

- ★ Early-Bird Breakfast – Jenae Bjelland, Director of Research for NASCSP, will speak about how well the community action network is using the national performance indicators to tell its story of changing lives and improving communities.
- ★ Lunch – Speaker Senator Mark Pryor; presentation of the Charles F. Cunningham Community Action Leadership Award.
- ★ Evening – CAP-PAC Reception – Ticket required. Tickets are available at the Registration Table.

Friday, May 29, 2009:

- ★ CAP-PAC Breakfast & Legislative Update – David Bradley, NCAF; Ticket required.
- ★ Silent & Live Auction